Module 5.2 – bioSite: Ideas, Sketches, and Inspiration

A. About Page

Laura Pavia is a compassionate healthcare professional and vibrant entrepreneur, skillfully balancing a demanding career with diverse creative pursuits and ambitious goals. Residing in Illinois, she currently serves as a dedicated office manager, bringing leadership and organization to her role while actively pursuing a future leadership position in the field.

Laura's academic achievements are a cornerstone of her journey. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree, a milestone she is deeply proud of. To further her clinical expertise, she also earned her Certified Clinical Medical Assistant (CCMA) certification, demonstrating a commitment to patient care and professional development. Beyond her professional life, Laura is a talented artist and maker with several established hobbies. She is an avid baker and finds joy in painting, creating expressive portraits. Her true entrepreneurial passion lies in candle making; she successfully founded and operates Sweet Cakes Candles LLC, designing her own custom marketing materials for her distinct product line.

Looking ahead, Laura combines her current experience with significant professional aspirations. She is presently pursuing a Master of Science in Healthcare Management Informatics at Colorado Technical University, maintaining an impressive 3.93 GPA with plans to complete her capstone project in February 2027. This advanced degree supports her long-term goal of leading a medical facility focused on geriatric care and mental health administration. Additionally, she holds a unique ambition to one day serve her community in a different capacity as a funeral director. As a devoted mother and fiancée, Laura applies the same dedication and care to her family as she does to her profession and community.

B. Interview Questions

Q1: Looking back at your journey so far, what is a core milestone or accomplishment that you are most proud of achieving?

I am deeply proud of earning my Bachelor of Science degree. Additionally, earning my Certified Clinical Medical Assistant (CCMA) certification and successfully founding and operating Sweet Cakes Candles LLC are milestones that mean a lot to me.

Q2: How do you typically approach new challenges or complex problem-solving in your daily life or career?

I approach new challenges by staying structured and focused, maintaining a 3.93 GPA in my graduate studies while working as an office manager.

Q3: What inspired your primary hobbies or creative outlets, and how do they help you recharge?

I am an avid baker and find joy in painting expressive portraits. I also channel my creativity into candle making, where I design my own custom marketing materials for my product line.

Q4: Can you share a memorable lesson or turning point that significantly shaped your perspective on life?

My path has been shaped by a deep commitment to patient care, professional growth, and bringing genuine empathy to everything I do.

Q5: What are some core values or principles that guide your decisions both personally and professionally?

Compassion, a dedication to patient care, professional development, and being a devoted mother and fiancée guide all my decisions.

Q6: When you have free time, what does an ideal weekend look like for you?

My ideal weekend involves focusing on my artistic hobbies like painting and baking, working on my candle business, and spending quality time with my family.

Q7: Who or what has been the most significant influence on your personal growth over the years?

My dedication to healthcare service, my entrepreneurial work with Sweet Cakes Candles LLC, and my roles as a mother and fiancée have been my biggest influences.

Q8: What is a goal or aspiration you are currently working toward or excited to tackle next?

I am currently pursuing my Master of Science in Healthcare Management Informatics at Colorado Technical University, and I plan to complete my capstone project in February 2027. My long-term goal is to lead a medical facility focused on geriatric care and mental health administration, and I also have a unique ambition to one day serve as a funeral director.

Q9: How do you balance your drive for personal achievement with relaxation and connection with loved ones?

I balance a demanding career as an office manager and graduate studies with my creative businesses, while always bringing care and dedication to my family.

Q10: If visitors take away one primary message or feeling after exploring your story on this site, what would you want it to be?

I want visitors to see me as a compassionate healthcare professional and vibrant entrepreneur who skillfully balances a demanding career with diverse creative pursuits and ambitious goals.
